HE SUBLET IT

Had a German Prisoner Busily at Work Digging That Protection
For Him.

The restless individuality of the American soldier, who was always seeking a shorter way to do things, made him appear to the French and British as hopelessly undisciplined. Even in battle the doughboy hated to follow precedent.

A unit of the Seventy-eighth division, pressing on under shell fire in the battle of the Meuse-Argonne, finally stopped under orders to dig in as fast as possible. In a few moments dirt was flying along the whole line.

Out in front, however, just behind a slight natural mound, one doughboy lay motionless with his rifle slanted toward the enemy.

"Make a hole! Make a hole!" yelled the lieutenant, coming up.

"Sh-h! Don't excite my contractor," the doughboy replied.

Over the edge of the mound the lieutenant saw a German prisoner feverishly digging almost at the end of the doughboy's gun.

THEN HE FELT FAINTER

"Sister," said the deacon severely, "you should avoid the very appearance of evil."

"Why, deacon, what do you mean?" asked the sister.

"I observed that on your sideboard you have several cut glass decanters, and that each of them is half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits."

"Now, deacon, it isn't anything of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I filled them halfway with some floor stain and furniture polish just for the sake of appearance."

"That's why I am cautioning you, sister," replied the deacon. "Feeling a trifle faint, I helped myself to a dose from that big bottle in the middle."

What Does May Mean?

"Mr. May is running on a platform of strict law enforcement, specifying the dry issue—at least we presume he favors enforcing the prohibition amendment. On the back of the cards he distributed was printed in bold type the words, 'May is Dry.' The captain of the curling team quizzed him that he presumed Mr. May meant by this that it was getting to be a long time between drinks."—Fairfax Forum.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the matter of the Estate of James T. Hubbard, deceased.

Now on the 12th day of June, 1920, this matter coming on to be heard, the court finds that said James T. Hubbard has been duly notified of this proceeding by publication, as provided by law, but appears not.

Now here said matter is taken up and the court having heard the evidence is satisfied that the legal presumption of the death of said James T. Hubbard is established.

The court finds that said James T. Hubbard was deceased of property in Buchanan County, Missouri, and Andrew County, Missouri, subsequent to his residence in Buchanan County, Missouri.

It is ordered that said James T. Hubbard be notified of said finding by this court, by notice published forthwith, for four consecutive weeks in The St. Joseph Observer, a newspaper published in Buchanan County, Missouri, and in The Westcott, a newspaper published in Andrew County, Missouri, and that said James T. Hubbard, if alive, or any person claiming to be his representative to this court, within twelve weeks from the date of the last publication of said notice, satisfactory evidence of the fact that he is still living, or of the person claiming to be his representative, be presented to the court, and if no such evidence be presented, the court will issue letters of administration upon his estate.

ALIAS ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Circuit Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, to the October Term, A. D. 1920.

State of Missouri, County of Buchanan, ss.

Katie Bergstrom, Plaintiff

vs.

Theodore Bergstrom, Defendant

Now at this day comes the plaintiff by her Attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Circuit Court that said defendant, Theodore Bergstrom, has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in the State of Missouri, and that he has concealed himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him in this State, it is ordered that said defendant be notified by publication, as required by law, that said plaintiff has commenced her suit in this Court against said defendant by petition and affidavit, the object of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of indignities such as to render his condition in life as his wife intolerable, in this, to-wit: that while defendant was living with plaintiff, he continually kept company with other women; that defendant, although being an able-bodied man, failed and refused to support plaintiff; that defendant has an ungovernable temper and continually quarreled and nagged at her and repeatedly beat and struck her; that defendant is an habitual drunkard and that since his marriage to plaintiff has committed adultery with parties unknown to this plaintiff.

That unless the said Theodore Bergstrom shall be and appear at the next term of this Court to be begun and held at the Court House, in the City of St. Joseph, in Buchanan County, State of Missouri, on the fourth day of October, 1920, on or before the third day of said term, to answer plaintiff's petition, the same will be taken for confessed as to him and judgment rendered accordingly.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order be published in The St. Joseph Observer, a newspaper published in the County of Buchanan, for four weeks successively, the last insertion of which to be at least fifteen days before the next October, 1920, term of this Court.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Circuit Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, to the October Term, A. D. 1920.

State of Missouri, County of Buchanan, ss.

W. Harvey Saunders, Plaintiff

vs.

Hattie A. Saunders, Defendant

Now at this day comes the plaintiff by his Attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Circuit Court that said defendant, Hattie A. Saunders, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and does not reside therein, it is ordered that said non-resident defendant be notified by publication, as required by law, that said plaintiff has commenced her suit in this Court against said defendant by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of indignities such as to render his condition in life as the husband of defendant, intolerable, in that, to-wit: that from and after the date of plaintiff's marriage with defendant, defendant has shown a most violent and abusive temper of mind and has exhibited great wrath and hatred towards plaintiff by calling him vile and indecent names, and without justification and excuse quarreled at plaintiff and accused him of matters that he knew nothing about; that defendant has on several occasions visited with other women of ill-repute and has freely spoken to plaintiff and other people about her association and familiarities with such men; and that on the 14th day of April, 1920, left and abandoned plaintiff. That unless the said Hattie A. Saunders shall be and appear at the next term of this Court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of St. Joseph, in Buchanan County, State of Missouri, on the 4th day of October, 1920, on or before the third day of said term, to answer plaintiff's petition, the same will be taken for confessed as to her and judgment rendered accordingly.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order be published in The St. Joseph Observer, a newspaper published in the County of Buchanan, for four weeks successively, the last insertion of which to be at least fifteen days before the next October, 1920, term of this Court.

A true copy. Attest:
